COME CELEBRATE

MONTREAL COUNCIL OF WOMEN'S 22nd WOMAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

This year's recipient is

CHERYL BRAGANZA

We are proud to have Cheryl Braganza as our 2008 award winner. A person who, as an immigrant woman, has faced many challenges – racism; the silent majority who wished to help her integrate but did nothing; the loss of self respect; the transformation to self worth by communicating the cause of women's empowerment.

As an accomplished artist, musician and poet she has raised awareness of immigrant women and their need to be supported. She has also taken the initiative with groups such as the South Asian Women's Association, to be involved in human rights and particularly the empowerment of women.

Let us pay tribute to a woman who inspires and excels in the area of the integration of women immigrants by communicating through the Arts.

This occasion is a wonderful opportunity for our members – Federated Societies and Individuals – to come together.
